MESSAGE FROM THE HEADMASTER

Our Statement of Purpose states that Selwyn House “provides students with an education of exceptional depth and scope.”

The Yearbook is one of the ways we maintain a record of the collective experience of the current school year. It is also a reminder that students have great breadth in their opportunities for involvement, recognition, and reward.

Our programmes are designed so that the cumulative experiences over the year at the School of our students in their academic, athletic, or extra-curricular activities leave them equipped with positive attitudes to scholarship and recreation so that they can develop their full potential.

Our students need to prepare for the uncertainty of the future. Sound skills and a willingness to keep learning are fundamental tools for their maximum control of their futures. We expect our students to use these tools with integrity and compassion.

I would like to thank and congratulate the Yearbook staff for producing such a comprehensive and attractive record of the school year.

On behalf of many students and staff, past and current, I would like to express the School’s deep gratitude to Mr. Monty Krindle for his direction of this publication over the last fifteen years.

In his effective and unassuming way, Mr. Krindle consistently provided great service to the school community through his work on the Yearbook. As Mr. Krindle retires from teaching, we wish him and his wife, Nancy, all happiness for years to come.

William Mitchell

SPECIAL DEDICATION

The 1997 Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Monty Krindle in honour of his dedication to this annual publication for the past 15 years. None of this could have been possible without him.

FACULTY RETIREMENTS

A FAREWELL TO TWO FRIENDS

Mr. Monty Krindle

In 1972, Mr. Krindle answered an ad that was tailor-made to his educational and teaching background. Living in Schefferville at the time, he was in town shortly thereafter for an educational conference, at which time he was contacted by then Headmaster of Selwyn, Alexis Troubetzkoy, and was offered the position.

Over the course of a quarter century, Mr. Krindle has taught science from Grade 4 - 9, math to Grade 8 students, and biology at the Grade 10-11 level. In addition, he was the Grade 4 form master for several years as well as the Grade 9 form master for long enough to forget when he started. He has taught the arts option of photography and, with Mr. Bruce Glasspoole, has been the driving force behind preserving memories as the yearbook's senior staffer for the last 15 years. Mr. Krindle also coached weight-training after he began a programme that continues to this day for himself.

His future plans will almost definitely take him outside the province to either central Ontario or British Columbia. Mr. Krindle hopes to put recent technological advancements to good use by creating an interactive version of an entry-level science programme which he began designing five years ago. Complete with self-help tutorials, the programme is aimed at students who might otherwise find themselves excluded from science.

Leaving September 30, Mr. Krindle will miss most what has kept him at SHS for so long; "the camaraderie of my colleagues and the energy, vitality, and enthusiasm of the students."

Mr. Krindle's military style of rule, balanced with a healthy dose of fairness, and a long tradition of academic excellence that began with his own secondary education, make him a legendary character at the School.

Thank you, Mr. Krindle, for the many years of enthusiasm and guidance.

Mr. David Cude

During his career at SHS, starting in 1971, Mr. Cude has taught everything from history to geography, math, ecology, consumer economics, MRI, and science, always at the Elementary level. He has coached soccer, softball, track, rugby, and hockey, his interest in which was perhaps inherited from a father who was an NHL goalie for both the Montreal Canadiens and the Detroit Red Wings.

There is much that Mr. Cude will miss about Selwyn but the students and their parents, faculty, and coaches ranked first. Not far behind, however, was listed the School's atmosphere, one that Mr. Cude credits with having enabled him to do the things that he wanted, permitting him the freedom to teach and coach in a manner that was satisfying for him and beneficial to his students.

"I'm proud to have been a part of an institution that has grown from being small and insular with an emphasis that was strictly academic to its current high-profile status with continued academic excellence and an athletic programme that is the envy of many," he said.

That teaching has become his greatest passion is made evident in his future projects which include getting involved in a literacy programme for adults, acquiring a certificate in technical writing, learning to play an instrument, and volunteer work.

"I also hope to travel, perhaps even return to Cardiff where my dad's family was from and coach hockey in Wales," he said.

Thank you, Mr. Cude, for all the years of encouragement and guidance, not to mention all the jokes and stories.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Now that the Yearbook is finished, it's a good time to look back over the difficulties and rewards we encountered while completing this project. The Yearbook started in a new direction this year, first by having a Grade 10 be co-editor to ensure year-to-year continuity, and second, by having both editors attend an intensive workshop on Yearbook editing at the end of last summer. We hope that these efforts have created a cleaner, fresher-looking book.

This year also marks the first time the Yearbook was created entirely on computer. While this fact caused much frustration and confusion during the year, all the kinks have been worked out, and future Yearbook staffs should benefit from our struggles.

While there are no major changes to the book this year, we hope that you notice and appreciate smaller things, like numbered pages, organized and distinct sections, and more text and photo captions. We considered some major overhauls, such as changing our venerable cover, but most people seemed opposed to these ideas and would rather we keep with tradition.

We would like to thank everyone who has contributed in any way, especially our faculty advisors, Mr. Krindle, Mr. Bedard, and Miss Tratt. The only thing left for us to say now is, "Enjoy the book."

TREVOR AHMEDALI

As my five years at Selwyn House make arrangements to buy farms and kick buckets, I cannot help but thank how incredible they've been (the years, not the buckets...). My time here has definitely been worth it, and I'd like to thank my parents above all others for making it possible. Thanks as well to friends: EM, EB, RS, P E T A, (guten Tag!), MT, RH ("Que passa, señor?"), MAZ hey, buhha), CD, TH (guess I'll never be in TAG...), and anyone else I may or may not have forgotten. Keep in touch. I'm also indebted to all my teachers, the people who make SHS a school worth going to. My deepest sympathies go to Mr. Shannon, who, after two years, still can't think of a way to defend Bried'Whatever in Nexus. You should move to the South Shore; people there are more creative. Disjointed mnemonic fragments: Robotics (journal beat 8 of 22!); rafting (Psycho-guy); ZooNet (I can get paid for this!); Grad! Thanx Trish!; Soret ("Dehors!"); KFC (I was framed, I tell you!). Smell the flowers while you can; nobody is promised a tomorrow. Ciao.

"Time is a train
Makes the future the past
Leaves you standing in the station
Your face pressed up against the glass." U2

ALEXEI ANIKINE

Well, these 5 years at Selwyn finally came to an end, but I have to say I'll miss Selwyn. To all the grads and the teachers: it's been fun (most of the time). From the faculty, I would like to thank BM, MD, WB, KB, BH, PS, BM, RN, NA, MK, JM. You've all made a difference. Chris and Mike, thanx for helping me get into things. From the middle of the classroom I appreciate the diversity of our grade... all you guys, I hope we get along better. Mom and Dad, thanx for putting up with me for these five years and for giving me the opportunity to be here. I know we had our differences, but I still love you both. And just so you know, being a rebel does pay off. Last but not least, Michelle, you were there for me when I needed you most, I love you very much. These were the most intense years of my life so far, I hope the memories don't fade away too fast. Guys, keep in touch.

MISCHA AUERBACH-ZIOGAS

Au revoir but not good bye. Au revoir to those classmates with whom I talked of politics, religion, and french. Au revoir to those teachers whom I dissappointed, delighted, and confounded, at decent intervals. Au revoir to that edifice whose pitted stone exterior obscures a human centre. Au revoir because after 11 years, our fates have become so inextricably linked that you cannot get rid of me that easily. And to those who thought it would never happen - I have nothing left to say.

ROBERTO BELLINI

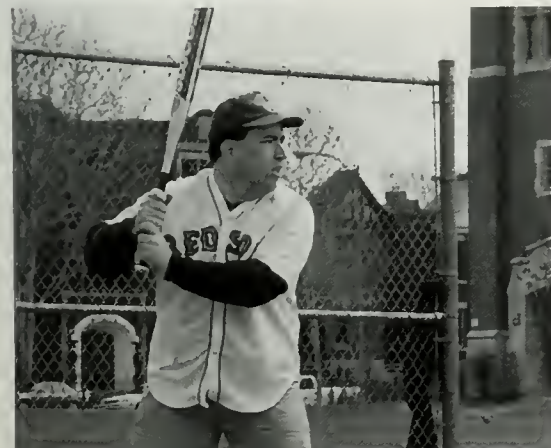

I stand tall and proud to say that I spent five hard years at such a home as Selwyn. As I stride ahead, I cannot help but look back over my shoulder. I came into grade seven without expectations or worries, on innocent boy. Even though I leave with a slightly heavier conscience, I would like to thank certain teachers who corrupted that innocent boy with the facts of life: BH, CB, JW, CM, RW, KB. SHS Athletics, sometimes, seemed to be more important than academics (Soccer: Gr.8 silver, Gr.9,10 champs, Gr.11 fun, 3 Nat'l Tournaments; Basketball: Gr.9 GMAA & provincial champs, Gr.8 GMAA champs; Rugby: Gr.10 7's champs, Rugby Trip 97). The coaching staff's (especially AP & PG) faith in me was the only reason for my success. To my friends: KW (pranksters), AN (Harvey's?!), IM (for heated arguments & b-ball games), RV (competition), JB (rugby 7s), TN & CN (you guys are the best), FB (pen & pencil dispenser), BM (always late), KB (God #2), ML (only if...). Bruna, I never feel as happy or alive than when I'm with you. There will never be enough time. I thank my mom, dad, and Carlo for putting up with it all. Thanks for always just being there. I wish everyone well and the best of luck.

ADAM BENJAMIN

WHATS UP Y'ALL. Adam and da rest of da Wu-Crew is leaving boby. Shouts to my moms and my pops who stayed by my side. To all my friends who got me back, J.G., I.L.B., J.K., T.S., I.M., F.B., K'Vone, crazy Fu in da Fufindo and the rest of my gansta's, preppies, and hikers. And to all the teachers who helped, and made learnin' alright, R.I.P. Leigh Seville, Coca Cola P.S., R.W., T.N., B.M., and da cookie dough M.D. Man, after 11 years it's over, time to move on. Oh, before I forget W.M., who gave a n@#$a another chance. To all the girls, over all the years, and to the only one who counts Y.A. To the Hertz crew, y'all crazier than evo'. To all the trips, porties, and da cool hangout spot. To all the partna's in crime. Westside is da best side. Like Puff Daddy says "Can't Nobody Hold Me Down." BABY, BAAABY

ERIC BENNER

Describing the best five years of my life (thus far) in one tiny square of print is no small task. I have always been one to say that the people make the place, so here are a few people who made my years here memorable ones. To the teachers who shaped my outlook on life for the positive: PS, for telling me where my talents lay; and KB, for telling me where they didn't; and to BW, for in so short a span of time helping me focus my ambitions, thanks to all. To my social peers: RS, perseverance through persistence; TA, scholarly superior; EM, strength in silence; CD, copiously classy; MT, sapere aude; TM, a man before my time; PM, ouf Veidersehen again; and the rest of the out of the ordinary people who made this bumpy roller-coaster ride of a time a little steeper and a little foster. I will keep my fond memories of Selwyn with me forever, no matter the place to which my future travels take me. Salut.

FRANÇOIS BERGON

"I am really quite fatigued as my last working days at Selwyn draw to a close. I do not wish to suggest, however, that I am disheartened or depressed or defeated. So I see that even when Fortune spins me downward, the wheel sometimes halts for a moment and I find myself in a good, small cycle within a larger bad cycle. The universe, of course, is based upon the principle of the circle. At the moment, I am in an inner circle. Of course, smaller circles within this circle are also possible." I would like to thank my parents for helping me endure 6 years at Selwyn (merci and grace). Friends: 2 many 2 name but my posse: IL(B)mo(c), JG, AB(n)gg, IM(p)rep, JK(g)od: it is only now that I finally realise how cool we really are... let's always keep in touch(luv-u-all-4-ever). Our memories: the vault, slip-slip, cheating, the lvs, the hack-stabbing... To Roberto: I'll always look up to you. Fermat contest: Muth comes easy to me...I felt like finishing first! sorry, my fellow nerd friend(s)...BRENDAN). My gratitude to teachers and coaches: RW,KB, PS, RN, WM, SM, NAC, JW, DBH, CB,TN,BM,BW,MD, and all the nthers. So long class of 1997.

PHILIPPE BEXTON

I'm not as good as you want me to be but better than you think.

-- Philp out --

KEVIN BOYLE

"All work and no play make Jack a dull boy" The past 5 years have produced many memories. The ones that stick out: Cabaret and Chateau with Yager and AB (Boyle, you're my rebel friend...), Gert's with KW, AL, RV and Biek, Midget basketball (provin. champs), 40's, cast party '96, '97 (Puke-fest '97), Ebonix, yarfin', mad TMR parties, cruisin in the Fu-finder, and just chillin. WOW!! A slap on the back to those who kept it movin': Adam (haaark! da walrus-man), FUBAR (always burnin'), JK (K'one'll be back!), Jeff (the PJ punana-man), KW (...a'gin 'n a'gin, aw'ight...), Aj (da 32nd Ave rim-urecka), RV (Ran Jeremy), Bobbie, IM, Frank (hiss), Yager, Mopy, Colin, JB, Morg, TS, the ECS trio (LA, BD, WK) and anyone 'n everyone from da slums (Lachine). Thanks to Mr Shannon (for making me enjoy english), and Mr Boyle a.k.a. Dad (for being the best coach-teacher-father I could ask for). A huge Thank you to my family (Mom, Dad, Kristen) I love you all. Well, this is the end and instead of some symbolic song lyric, I'll leave y'all wit a somethin' phreaky that I read on a bumper sticker.

"If it smells like fish, eat it."

-Some hilarious genius

JAMES BROOKS

Eight years, half my life, and it all comes down to a blurry end. So many memories, so little time. I'm sure my year at LCC won't be as fun. Rafting, Rugby (7s championship), Europe (x2), Hockey (11-0 games), Cast Parties (20x24s), Grads (remember?), Spring Balls (KR, TW), curry in a hurry, won ton, brothel houses, high school dances (fun, fun, fun!), tuck shop, Fatty Frappy's, Cabaret, Cai and Wok. To all my friends who made those "Absolute" and "Bleu" nights so great, I owe you my life. I will never forget you. Hikers and Preps, we know we're the best. CC- my drinking buddy, NY- my trickster friend, BM- men's club, ML- my right hand man, my brothers- real and wannabe (RB, JD), and those other punks (TS, CN, TN, RB, JG). Hikers, Preps, Ginos, Tokers, Gangstas; we're a diverse bunch. So many people have helped me along the way and to those special few teachers who I will always cherish, thanks! TJN, KB, PS- the intellectuals. SM, PG- great coaches. RG, BW- you're nuts! Mom and Dad- you mean the world to me! Those I'll remember mean uny too much.

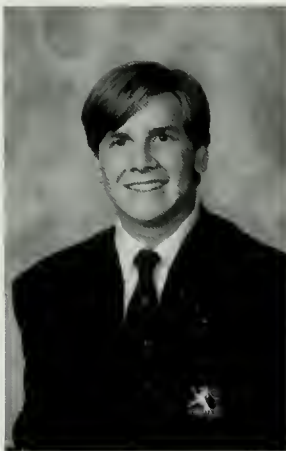

CHARLES COLBY

Eleven years at Selwyn House is impossible for me to summarize in a small grad quote. What I can do, though, is express how I feel after having completed those eleven years. I was expecting overwhelming joy or ecstatic celebration and a few good memories that I would be sad to leave behind. In fact, what has happened is that I do feel the anticipated joy but more because of accomplishment than from any real desire to leave. And, as for the expected few good memories, it is actually eleven whole years of good memories that I will not leave behind but revere until I die. Despite all that #@&*, Selwyn has been hard. I would be long gone had it not have been for you Mom, Dad and Linz. As for the others who have made it a party (James, Thomas, Trench, Gloves, Graham, Morgan and Katch) you know I'll miss you. This is Monkey saying you'd be surprised how many times the end is really the beginning. Now let's get...

SEAN CORISTINE

The better half of my life was spent at Selwyn, 11 years to be exact. It's about time to move on to new things. This experience / memory, could not have been possible without my whole family behind me 100%. In leaving, I would like to thank a few people who have made my experience a great one. They are, in no particular order: K.B., P.L., B.M., R.G., & M.D.. Enough serious stuff though. What I'd really like to talk about is the body Phil roto-jive, what a dance! Oh yeah, I forgot to mention the great times I had with the outing club, all thanks to M.B.. The most important things, however, and to what I owe my greatest thanks, are my friends. The whole grade was amazing, but special thanks go to: R.N., C.C., A.L., T.S., P.B., K.B., & A.P. who put the 'friend' back into 'buddy'. All my space is filled up, so in conclusion, I'd like to share something: A wise man once told me "Never trust a naked monkey." Man was he right!

COLIN CUMMINS

I don't want to thank anybody or anything. Everybody that needs to be thanked know who they are. I've had a lot of memorable experiences in the last five years, none of which I will mention for fear it may incriminate me. I'd like to just thank the headmaster for the detentions, Mr. Wearing for always yelling at me, Mr. Glasspoole for helping me get to class after soccer at lunch, Mr. Krindle for making me take a test that I wasn't supposed to be here for, and Mr. Williams for giving me a 0% on those two assignments. Enough sarcasm, it's time to go to Dawson and wreak havoc on another institution. Now I am tired. I need sleep. Life without chaos and anarchy is no life at all, I'm glad I gave some life to Selwyn.

"How can people judge me?
Do they know what goes on?
Do they know how I think?
No they don't!
Neither do I...watch out."

MICHAEL DALGLEISH

Once, I knew this kid who wouldn't take blood transfusions, so they gave him apple juice instead, and in the autumn he changed colour, fell out of a tree, and died.

That kid didn't go to Selwyn House.

CARL DHOLANDAS

Eleven short years ago, I entered Selwyn House a very frightened child. Now, I prepare to bid farewell to this great institution that has had such a great impact on my life. I was a feeble and frivolous young boy eleven years ago, and now I can best describe myself as having an almost religious seriousness of temperament, a profound love of knowledge and reason, and an excessive amount of egotism and ambition. For all of the triumphs and tribulations that I have been through in this highly nurturing environment, I must thank all the teachers and students upon whose knowledge, character, and sense of humour I constantly relied. At the end of the beginning, I can already say that a deep sense of respect for the process of learning has been impressed upon me. I look back on the lessons of the past in order to form a philosophy that will guide me to success. So, immersed in constant analysis and contemplation, I look hopefully to the future.

It's over. I will always hold the memories of eleven wonderful years at Selwyn close to my heart. Because of their unconditional love and support at home, at the playing-fields, and in my times of crisis, I would like to thank my family first; Chrissy, Mom, & Dad (the marathon is over), I could never have survived this long without you. To the many teachers over the years who have so richly instilled me with hope, understanding, happiness, and humour, with the same enthusiasm with which they teach their subjects; I am eternally grateful. B.H., senior drama was one of my favorite experiences; K.B., you couldn't possibly be more dedicated to your students; P.S., your classes make us all smile; M.D., thanks for making chemistry fun; B.M., you should be a motivational speaker; P.L., for adding a personal edge to math; R.W., you were always there for advice; B.W., for having faith in me; and M.K., for making my interest in photography a reality. To my coaches for guiding me through all eleven years. A.P., you taught me to be passionate about sports; P.G., for always trusting my judgement; S.M., for pushing me to my potential; and M.M., for making me confident on and off the field. And lastly, to the students past and present who have carefully sculpted my school experience; take care of yourselves. But now as we go our separate ways, remember that which will always keep us together. Adieu.

CHRISTOHPER EICH

I have spent a lengthy period of time at Selwyn going through the trials and tribulations which are all memories now. I have learned a lot at Selwyn which has helped me and will continue to help me with every aspect of life. I am very grateful for this; however, it is now time to move on into the real world. Never forgetting the people that have inspired, encourage, helped and interested me throughout the years, I would like to thank BM, BW, RN, KB, BG, AL, BH. Sports has played a great role during my time here and special people have aided me in my athletic career namely JB, MM, MD and BM in Football, Rugby and Soccer. Things which are always going to be a part of me through my high school years: The Dallas Cowboys, Porsche "There is no substitute", Boss. Thanks to all the Greeks/Italians in the clubs, in the jeeps and the after hours. Ella Re! To all the girls (you know who you are) that made the stay so much more enjoyable and valuable to me especially the most important ones who are Claudia, Kim, Mel. The people who I truly thank are my parents who have made enormous sacrifices which I am absolutely grateful for; Thank you. Ciao.

ROBERT FAGAN

Can it really be over? The torture, the pressure, the exhaustion, all banished forever? Strangely for some inexplicable reason I have developed a perverse attachment to them over my nine years at Selwyn and leaving it all will no doubtedly be tough. First I'd like to thank all the teachers who made it easier and harder for me and my parents, I love you both. Thonx to da smoke shack boys (JK, IM, TS, AB, AL), word up to my brethren (AB, TS, PB), gotta love them jews (JG, NY, JB) and even the wannabees (IL, I give you props for tryin' what up to the gongstars (FB don't kill yourself) and the players (JK, AB, FB) and team Krondo (MG, TSontag, TSimon, AB, AL, PB). Memories include 3 days of madness at Whistler (AB), orientation weekend, hockey trips (NY and won-ton soup). To all my friends and those I forgot to mention y'all know whats up. This is FUBAR, Slobby, Snahbert, Rabby, and just plain old Rob sayin "Later Boys"

JEFFREY GANTZ

After five years the time spent at Selwyn House is finally over. I could still remember yesterday, walking in to my first day of grade seven and now I'm in grade 11 graduating. Time over the years has brought me some of the greatest friends I have ever had. The teachers here have taught me to succeed and I'm in debt to them for the rest of my life. I would like to say thank you to all the teachers. I'd like to give a shout out to the Selwyn boys who stuck by me and had my back when I needed them (AB, JK, IM, ILB, FB, AN) and I'd like to especially thank my boy back home S.K. next year the party begins... To my Shorty: I'll always be there for you when you need me. Remember late night? To Evil one day everything will be all good. So we're gonna? Lock em up. To Jay: (EC, upset of the week, TWIR, UC no peppers.) To AB: (Don't worry about it, I still got your back, remember the Vault). To my Scrunchie: you've made the year wonderful and incredible. Thank you for being there through the good and bad times. You've done so much for me, 143 Debbie, never forget. Thanks most of all to mom, dad, Jess and family you've done so much, thanks for all the support. Good luck to all the grads next year. Thank you everybody for making Selwyn House memorable. One more thing—I finally did it.

RISHI HANDA

I have come home to end five years of rebellion and frustration. What can I say, I left my mark with my infamous mullet and mature beard. This school has also left quite an impression on me.

ZIAD KAEDBEY

Eight crazy years of my life have finally come to an end. So many good memories, I will never forget. Gr 4, my head as a baseball. La ferme: Kev look out for the quick mud! Gr 8, what a soccer team. B-ball city champs. Gr 9, B-ball prov. champs, seeds I'd rather forget. AJ you saved my life. Gr 10 geology trip, B-ball, The Ice wars (AJ, R James Bond B). Gr 11, orientation, football, b-ball. Cast party (we're not in Harlem or Manhattan). The cracks about you know who JG. Soccer at recess. Ball hockey (chill RV). Mopy & Colin, you guys want a light? To all the coaches who believed in me (AP, PG, CB, MD, and big thanks to MM). To the teachers who made a difference (DC, CB, MD, PS, RG, BH, BM, and especially KB). The most important thanks to my family, through thick and thin we stuck together. Rayan, keep working buddy, you've helped me in more ways than you know. Zeina, you know how much you've helped me, your my big sister and my best friend. Mom, you were there when I needed you, you're one of the two most amazing people I know. I love you. Dad, you're the other most amazing person I know, what can I say about a superman like you. All the Lebanese jokes (Kharrar!!!), all the great moments, all the great friends. I'll never forget it. Yalla, yolla, let's go!!!

JAMES KISIELEW

The downward spiral of our final year has come to its last, melancholic drops. At this moment in time, while writing a note which will be forever frozen as the definition of my high school life, I feel that the end is happiness wrapped in a warm tear. I can feel nothing but dreamy emotions. Thankfully, my eyes smile when I think back to all the moments in the past decade which have brought me closer to my friends. Even though many people believe the contrary, I have grown quite attached to Selwyn. It has brought me close to some of the best friends I'll ever have the chance to know. It has filled my mind with unforgettable memories laced with the echoing sounds of laughter and the sensation of fallen tears. To my family, thank you for your endearing support. To Laurie, I care for you beyond the limits of this world; stay close. To Wendy, among clouds of confusion, your presence means everything to me. Always. To 1717, something so special can never be forgotten. Finally, I must thank all my friends at Selwyn for the best years of my life. I cannot acknowledge all of you; this note would be far too long. Friendships have evolved in the past ten years, but you have all been special to me; don't ever change.

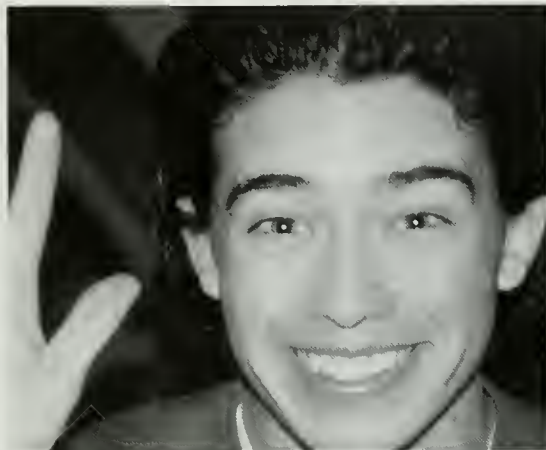

MORGAN LACKENBAUER

It seems hard to believe that it's been eleven years since I stood crying in the schoolyard after my dad dropped me off on the first day of school. Selwyn House is special to me because of the people I have met over my time here. Brooks, I have more respect for you than you will ever know. Bobby and Rob, you guys are the best. Mopes & Fatty, you could always make me laugh. Boom Boom, Aj, Romek, Brad, Nick, Boyle, and all my Selwyn boys - I will never forget you guys. Thanks to all the teachers and coaches who have made me not only smarter, but a better person as well - KB, RN, PS, PL, MD, and especially MM & RW - I can't thank you enough for all you have done for me. Some memorable experiences: Rugby Tour '97, Spring Ball, rafting with the B.G.A., The Crash (smile, Val), Macbeth, and countless others. Of course, I must thank my family. Georgie, Kitty, Margs, Megs and Bentley, I love you all. None of this could have been possible without your support. Best of luck to all the Grads of '97. Keep in touch.

IGOR LAUW-BASTIEN

My decade at selwyn has finally come to an end. Leaving my friends will be definitely the hardest thing for me. A.B., thanx for helping me look at the better things in life, and making me laugh. J.K. will never forget that cloth shop on the Champs-Élysées. F.B., sorry for accidentally hurting you so many times. J.G., I STILL PICK UP MORE GIRLS THAN YOU. C.N.T.N and M.T. thanx for helping me with my last minute duties. R.F., I swear if I did not know you and I saw you on the street I would pummel your #@&. I.M., always the best at causing a controversy: You guys don't understand how much you mean to me. I could not go through Selwyn without you. Give me a call in about ten years and I'll invite you all to my mansion in Casa Blanca.*

Looking back at my past 10 years, more than half my life, I can't say truthfully that I will remember it all, so I guess I gotta write it down before I forget it. Respects 2 teachers: BM, KB, BW, MK, BMy, DC, PL & coaches: MM, PG, & RM. Special thanx 2: Papa & Mami 4 life, Bro 4 everything else, Ba Ngooi 4 smiles, Flip 4 open ears, Marco 4 the good trip, FUBAR 4 the lift home, Bas 4 sygrits, Mike 4 partnership, Kev 4 coming 2 Gert's, Tommy 4 good ol' days, Colin 4 insanity, Sean also 4 insanity & Thomas for da tunes. Can't forget the women, of course thanx 2: my Spring Ball dates (Meris, Carly, Christine), Laura, U're awesome, and Julie, U stole my heart, but U can keep it 4 as long as U want 2. I guess that all I'll remember when I open my yearbook are the warm company of my buds, the pain of dragging myself 2 my classes, and anxiety of waiting 4 the clock 2 go by, but now I'm not sure if I want time 2 go that fast.

Alas! How swift moments fly! It seems that I have gone through the worst. Yet, when I reconsider how my five years have flashed by at Selwyn House, I could almost say that it was a dream of perfect bliss, too beautiful to last, except the frightful food of course. To say that my association ends here with Selwyn would be untrue. Neither time nor distance will bleach the bitter/sweet memories gathered at this institution which we have learned to call home. There is too much to remember and too little to forget. Try as I might, it would be near impossible to sum up all I wished to say in the limited empty space beside my picture. To Mom and Dad: thanks for sending me to Selwyn and for putting up with me, especially for giving me a lift everyday. All in all, I could never thank you enough. Thanks to all the staff who have made my stay at Selwyn such a great pleasure and in particular BM (without you, Physics will never be as much fun), PS (Yes, I did enjoy reading The Master of Disaster. What's the thing about peckerhead anyway?!), MD (though I was quiet, I enjoyed your class immensely) & PL (I love your philosophy: live and Learn, K.K.) Thanks to all my friends (you know who you are) who helped me through. Finally, thanks again to those who did and did not support me. It is now that I should reveal to The Class of '97 why I did not speak much in class, everything lies in the unspoken.

IAN MARQUIS

A few things that stick in my mind during my stay at Selwyn: B-ball trips (Boston, Lennoxville), Orientation Weekend, Rugby Trip overseas (random calls and ham sandwiches), New Year's (partying with hikers), Gradvotion (Vi-vian), Lourie's country house, house parties, nickel bags, Madonna, breaks in the alley, soccer at recess, beepers, tuck shop cravings (No Bro's), hockey pools, playoffs, rugby bus (Hey-ohh), Violent Femmes, Plattsburgh with K.B., the Fu-finder (R.F.), pool at N.Y.'s, golf with B.M., math class, driving in the snow with Franky, Snowboarding with A.B., T.S., and I.L.B., Kanawana and T.S. (mock-daddy), ball with B.B., C. & T. No, phone conversations with K.W. until 3 am, mise Ojeu with the No's, bar-hopping with J.B. and C.C., clubbing during the summer, girlfriend talk with J.G., and finally "taking the day off" with J.K., the only other who had guts. To my first love, Elizabeth, there's nothing you haven't shared with me during this past year. Thanks for putting up with me. God knows I hardly deserved it. To all the prefects: thanks for disagreeing so much. I'm sure we've all learned invaluable lessons. And finally to my family, the pops, the moms, and do bro, thanks for being there whenever I needed you.

From princes to kings. As the moon disappears behind the clouds, It's time to natch the sun.

Five years ago, I leaped into the Selwyn unknown and having survived the journey, I can honestly say these have been the best years of my life. Rob, you annoyed the hell out of me, and then got mad when I retaliated. "YES" Jeff, the internet has a vast array of resources. Roberto, you never got on my back when everybody else did; don't lose touch. Ian, I won't break any more bones if you don't. Colin, who's prospect #1? Mischa, was it fate? Well, that's debatable. Thanks, K.B. for always telling me like it is, and for putting up with this "obstreperous little tyke" until he grew out of it. B.H., for being a man who is passionate about what he teaches. B.M., for moderating violence in the physics lab; good luck next year! C.R., for making French a class to look forward to for the first time. P.G., for always giving me the confidence to keep playing. C.B., for trying too hard to make chemistry fun, and for two great years of basket-ball. Alumni pool? T.N., for making history the fascinating subject I knew it was. A.L., for letting me enjoy math class. E.P., trees don't grow very quickly. L.P., egos come in many shapes and sizes. Thanks Mom and Dad for all your encouragement and support. Dan, for letting me have the car. And Eric, well, what can I say? Zaido, I wish you could have been there to see me graduate; I love you and will always remember you.

BRADLEY MASSI

To begin is the hardest part of any project. Grade seven was the longest year ever. Grades eight through eleven were a blast that went by so quickly. I can't believe I'm already leaving Selwyn. Memories forever: Boston hockey Trips & Wan Ton soup, getting 85% on a math exam !!!, Spring balls, All-Star football game, Rugby 7's Champs, Boys Private Club, parties, Toronto, rugby tour '97, white water rafting and drinking nights roaming the streets with my friends Baileys and Citron. Thankx to RW, PS, KB, PL, BW, DP. If you're having fun you're not learning--that will never be said about S.H.S. A day lost at Selwyn is a day in which you have not laughed. I want to thank Mom, Dad, Pam & Mandy for always believing in me. Thanks to all my friends especially the Posse, NY, JB, IM, CC, RB, JK, ML. Happy memories always out live bad memories. I hope Selwyn can manage without me !!!

"It's against my programming to impersonate a deity." - C3PO

From the barren wasteland of Winnipeg in the year 1995 came a callow 13 year old youth, who sat in Mr. Nincheri's class and watched the goings on. When he bested Mike Tsoukas at Capitals of Countries, we knew we had something major on our hands. Though he had to return to Winnipeg, next September he showed up again, inveigling his way into most aspects of student life. Described by Mr. Shannon as a "polymath", Matt became famous for being a repository of such arcane facts as the naming system of Iceland and the primary exports of Lesotho. Matt was also known for spending the vast majority of his time in the library or Power Lab, berating Jacques Parizeau, and acting in two school plays ("yeah, well, nice beard there.") Matt wants to thank MT, ML, CE, MT, IR, TN, CN, CD, BP, WB, BM, BM, KKB, NAC, and TMBG. You may see Matt irritating the professors at Marianopolis and McGill in years to come, on the way to his career as a computer guru. Ave atque vale!

EARL MERIALES

Five long years have passed by like an unforgettable moment in time. My Selwyn days resemble the blinding flash of a camera that marks itself long after its gone. So many memories to remember! For these memories, I would like to thank all of my teachers and the Selwyn House Staff that have provided such treasures. I have yet to meet a teacher who couldn't teach!! Thanks also goes to my family. My beloved parents whose support lifted me through the worst of times, and my sister and aunt who've always pushed me forward. My high school days would not be complete without my invaluable friends and colleagues (T.A., E.B., R.S., M.T., R.H., C.D., M.A., J.D., J.D., G.S.) who've made these days a great experience. From rumbling robot wrestlers to raging rapids, this roll of film is full. Rewound and a fresh roll in place, I'm ready to move on with a photo album of memories with me always. Forever and ever.

AJAY NARASIMHADEVARA

Five years of Selwyn have finally come to a close. Throughout the years, many memories and good times prevail. How can all the good times be summed up? Rafting (Bobby can you steer?), Thetford Mines (Subway Mmmmm...), Basketball trips (Who invited James Bond anyways?), Spring Ball '96-'97 and CAST parties. Never 4-get: the "Atlas Boys" + B-ball champs '94-'95. To Bobby: thanx for the blackmail G19; I'll never forget [the Harvey's taxi], I got the coupons man!! To PJ: thanx for the good times, never forget: TWIR+TYIR, UC (lettuce + ketchup) + a coke, THE MAXIMA, LA LAKERS SUCK! To KB: Twelve years and still counting my man. To KW: never forget LNC + the cheeseburger shot. To CN (Fatty)+ TN (Mopey): thanx boys for the good times (Misc O Jeu+hockey pools). To JK: You've changed since Gr.7 (remember?). JB, IM, ZK (Yella; Detroit Homeboy), ML (Red Lobster's), TN (Ro-mick) (Charley's, HOMEY); I'll never forget you guys. A special thanx to all my friends at ECS who made my stay at Selwyn so memorable! Thanx to KB, RG (half-hockey), PL and BM for the knowledge over the years and CB for the awesome lifts to school. Mom, Dad and Rupa thanks for all the support, I love you all. To 'da hoyz of 1997, we'll move on to better places but let's remember this place; Selwyn is special.

What's the difference between an orange? The horse doesn't have handle bars.

Confused? That's how I felt five years ago on a day in late August. Some questions were going through my mind: 'Where are all the girls?' and 'What the hell is a fag tag?' I also noticed I was the only one with my front blazer buttons done up. I learned from a friend later on that this was a severe mistake, and I never did it again. The five years that followed proved to be an ensemble of learning experiences, mostly because of certain teachers: CM, BM, KB, RG. But most fun was found outside of school: burning Mt. Mounsfield, fishing TRIPS, Thetford, rafting, Hamilton, etc. Thanks to friends who made these years fun: SC, JM, DO, MD, TN- keep in touch. Thanks most of all to Dad, Mom, Laura, and the rest of my family for being great. My stay at Selwyn has been invaluable.

There must be some kind of way out of here, said the joker to the thief. There's too much confusion, I can't get no relief. The time has come my friends. The day we've all been waiting for. Life is a trip that never ends. It seems over, but there's always more. They keep calling me. These past five years have gone by so quickly. Now that I am here, I must make a turn on this road of life, but have I been well prepared? Is there anybody out there? Bad memories will warn me that the world is not how we would all like it to be, and the good ones will accompany me while I wait for the sun. Is it tomorrow, or just the end of time? I have met many strangers along the way, and would like to acknowledge the ones that have become more than simple bystanders. S.C., M.G., M.L., A.N., R.N., T.N., D.O., K.W., and coaches, M.D., P.G., M.M., and R.M., thanks for the great memories. My family has always supported me and for this I thank them too. Crazy, toys in the attic I am crazy. I see a red door and I want to paint it black. Where is the feast we were promised? She'll come back as fire, to burn all the liars, and leave a blanket of ash on the ground. When logic and proportion have fallen sloppy dead, and the white night is talking backwards, and the red queen is off with her head, remember what the doormouse said. Feed your head.

COLIN NO

I can't remember much about my first 2 years at S.H.S., but I can definitely remember the 9 others. They were packed with good and bad times. Numerous incidents gave our grade a bad rep, but brought us closer together. Thanks to all my teachers from Manning in grade 1 to Biggs in grade 11 (special thanks to people who made school tolerable and at some times fun: the Cudester, the Downey bros, Sorot, Jo, R.W., Dr. B. H., K.B., B.M.x2, B.W., C.B., P.G., M.M., and S.M.). Thanks as well to Mark and Jim, and to Simplicio, "No, we don't have any Molson!" I'll never forget: Rugby Tour '94 and '97 - nights in Dublin, lagers and ciders [cheers!], Marcus and the farm, Mr. Seville, the Bruisers against the Warriors, b-ball against ECS, Spring Ball '97 after party, Quebec city, soccer at recess, hockey pools, the Foofinder, hangin' with Wangatang, Orientation weekend, Grad, league and provincial midget b-ball champs, senior rugby 7's champs, and Russell and Normand's cooking. Good-bye to all-nighters spent completing English essays and assignments, uncomfortable uniforms, French and geography classes, and early mornings. I couldn't have made it without the support of my family, thanks for everything. To everyone, good luck in the future, and let's keep in touch and always remember:

The quieter you become, the more you can hear.

TOBY NO

Eleven years have gone by so fast; so many good times, so many people to thank. First and foremost, thanks to Mom and Dad for sending me to such a great school and for pushing me to perform. Thanks to Selwyn's great athletics program and all the great coaches that I've been fortunate enough to have. Sports has been a huge part of my life. Many thanks in particular to Mr. Maurovich, Mr. Govan, and Mr. Paoletti, not only for making me a better athlete, but for making me a better person. Throughout my 11 years, I've been privileged to have some great teachers, but tough ones at the same time. Thanks to Mr. Litvack, Ms. Biggs, Mr. Shannon, Mr. Downey, Mme. Werbiski, Mr. Williams, Mr. Nincheri, and Mr. Moffat for giving me a higher education. Mr. Wearing is a cool friend. He understands this year's graduating class in particular, more than anyone. Thanks for that. To my friends, Morgon, Kevin, James, Ion, James, Jeff, Ajay, Bobby, Frank, Rob, Adam, Phil, Brad, Igor, Z, Nick, Tomek, Thomas, Tommy, and last but not least, my brother, Colin: thanks for all the good times and your friendship. To the class of '97: I wish you all good luck for the future, and I hope to see everyone at the reunion with stories of success.

DAVID O'BRIEN

The Past 8 years of my life have been represented by Selwyn House. The daily task of getting up and coming to Selwyn is over so now I'll have to decide where to go when I awake. In leaving there are people I should thank for filling up my Selwyn stay with positive experiences. Thanks to Mom, Dad and Sarah for their support and always giving me lifts to school. Thanks to the teachers who helped me out over the years. Mr. McMullan for the Jazz Band. Mr. Boyle for Intramural sports and the outing club trips. Mr. Glaude for Ball Hockey. Most of all thanks to the friends that I've made over the years. You made the school days much more enjoyable. I'm leaving with lots of good memories, and it's going to be strange not seeing the same familiar faces that I'm use to everyday. I'm really happy to be leaving but there's a lot of stuff I'll miss. Good bye and good luck to all the graduates.

BRENDAN PAULL

Ever since the Sr. Football "incident", I have been accused of having a "hit list". For all of you who want one, here is one: AP, EB, CCu, JB, TSo, MAZ, TSi, SC, SZ. On the other hand though, there are those that have helped me on the way along the path from grade 7 to graduation, ALé, ALaw, TMa, MM, CE, CN, NY, CCo, TNi, IM. I could not have made it through this without you great teachers: BMy, BMo, BG, AL, PL, MD, PS, KB, BH, GR, GM, WB. Lots of things have happened over the years: rafting ("wakey! wakey!"), Robotics x2 (so much to do, so fast), Egg Drop (Ker Splat!), and well, grad. I don't want to sound corny (I always am), these 5 years really have gone by too fast, it seems like just yesterday I was being assigned my grade 7 homeroom. As I leave, being the only student this year to JAC, I'd just like to finish by saying "Nanometer".

THOMAS SIMON

Baybah BAYBAY!!! O.K., first of all, for all of you looking at this picture. I don't look like this! The shot really does not do me any justice. I've been at Selwyn for eleven years now and I am really tired. I remember the scowny little first grader that I was, innocent, and curious. Now that I've grown those two inches I'm ready to... man I don't know! Anyway I'd like to thank God for guiding me and helping me out, my parents, I love you, my little brother Derek for being a friend and a good punching bag, my grandmothers, Nonny and Mormor, my sisters Jodie and Leslie, and the rest of my family. Mad shoutouts to: R.F., A.B., J.K., A.L., K.W., D.F., K.B., F.B., I.B., B.M., N.Y., I.M., T.S., C.C., J.B., J.G., B.K., A.N., T.N., C.N., and the rest of the class of '97. I wanna' thank Hip-Hop music for providing me with the flava', and the bomb ass buddah for bein' my savya'. Teachers and coaches thank you for your time and patience, I'm sorry if I was a trouhlemaker. Big up to everybody I hang out with in the neighbourhood, and that's just about it yom'sayin'!!! So pence, keep it real, one love, word to the mutha', and yo the saga continues.

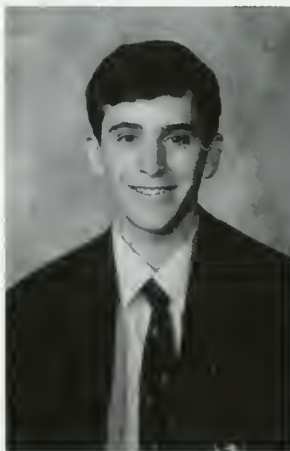

THOMAS SONTAG

I have spent 11 of my 16 years at Selwyn. They have been 11 good years, but certainly not easy ones. The rigid schedule is only made tolerable by the bright stars of the Selwyn universe which seem to elevate even the darkest of days in a grueling week. Things like outdoor ed with Marty, the '97 Rugby Tour, the spring halls, the plays and cast parties, la ferme, France '94, SIIS sports, as well as the little things – soccer at recess, chaotic lunches courtesy of Nina-Russell-Normand, sex ed with RW, and even a little joke from Patty Shannon in the middle of an exam. These are the little tidbits (BW) that will stay with me for ever. Any way... Shout out to all the teachers and coaches for doing their best and for putting up with us. Shout out to all the students for doing their best and putting up with them. Shout out to all my friends for adding humour to school life. A big tip of the hat to the whole English department, BM, TJN, RW and coach RM for being passionate and intelligent in your work. Hugs and kisses to my amazing family for giving me something to look forward to every day after school, and for just being awesome. Finally, my love, respect, and congratulations go out to all the grads of '97, I wish you all the best.

RICHARD STERN

Though I've only been here five years, I find myself surrounded by so many people to whom I owe a debt of gratitude. Suffering through my endless fountain of purposeless inquiries, my teachers deserve a great deal of thanks. Of special note: thanks, B.M., for your enthusiasm which rubbed off on me and brought a new concept into my life; a work ethic. Thanks as well to M.D. Richard, it's Richard), P.S. (golf is exercise like Baie D Urfe is a community), P.L., A.L., B.G., C.B., B.W. (explain? That's like list form, right?), E.P., R.M., N.A.C., R.N., B.M., B.H., K.B. (nothing motivates me more than opposition), J.W., E.P., B.B., G.M. Robotics was an excellent experience, thanks B.M., B.M., T.D., and B.B. for accompanying us to Toronto. Thanks too to my many great friends. I know we'll stay in contact after Selwyn and I wish you all success in your future endeavors.

MICHAEL TSOUKAS

Let's see...what's for homework this weekend?...Grad note for Monday!! I've been waiting eleven years to write this comment! I better make plan of what I'm going to say: Notes for Grad Comment (due Monday) 1) Introduction: When I will be growing old of age, I want to look at this very grad note and remember the great memories this fine institution has provided me. 2) Possible flashback: September, 1986 - Shy boy enters Selwyn House, eager to learn. June 1997 - A mature young man exits, ready to face the world. 3) My thanks to personal family members: I owe everything to my father for sending me to this school; to my family, for helping me and being very patient; and I thank God for all that He has given me. 4) Expression of ecstatic relief, followed by a shift of thought: Phew! I'm free! Oh, wait a minute... 5) Large thanks to the teachers and coaches: Thanks to all the faculty of Selwyn House for creating a superb learning atmosphere; each teacher has positively influenced my character in one way or another. I admire and respect them all. 6) Memories and friends: To all my friends: memories. We shall remember each other, but don't worry: somewhere, somehow, We Will Meet Again. I thank these people for their dear friendship, in good times and in bad. As for the Greeksters, the parties have just begun.... 7) Various ethnic sayings in a foreign language: Zita i Ellatha, re pethia! Opa! 8) Clincher sentence / conclusion. To all the Grads of 1997, you will be part of my memory, not for a few years, but forever. That's done. Gee, I hope my grammar is good....

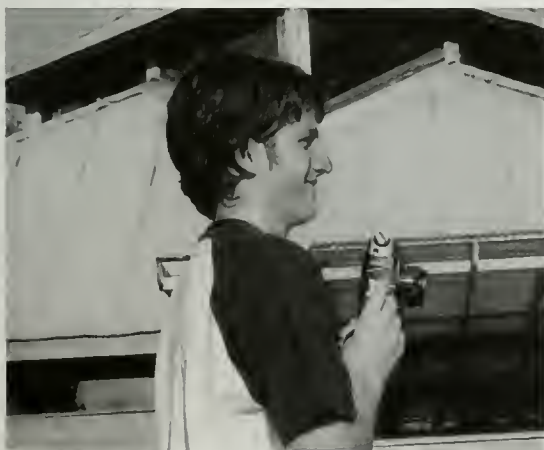

ROBERT VROOM

Wow! How did 5 years go by so fast? At the beginning of grade 11, I couldn't wait to graduate but as the door to the outside world approaches, I realize how much I'm gonna miss this family. So many great memories: the geology trip (my first stogie with ML & JB), the rafting trip (volleyball), the crash (who was the driver again?...hmm), the crazy physics class conversations with Kev (a.k.a. master T), after-parties (wine and Sambucca). Special thoughts to Ms. Biggs and Mr. Nicoll you were great and thanks to all the other SHS faculty & staff. Thanks Morg; no doubt we'll be drinking beer on the 19th hole in 30 years. Thanks for the chats Rober, JG, KW, RM, AN, T & CN, ZK, thanks for always putting me in a good mood. Poker & Bell with Bri and Biek my 2 bros. Mum, Dad, Dave, Chrissy, and Bri you've always been there for me, thank you. I love you guys. Well Selwyn, I'm finally on my way; do you think I'm ready?

NICHOLAS YANOW

After a full eleven years at this school, I am excited to move on, yet I will miss all the good times we've had. From crying with a whole bunch of other ankle-biters on our first day of school, playing intense soccer games out in the rink, all the sports, the locker room talk, the school trips (Canadiano Village, Quebec City, Toronto, Mt. Mansfield, Boston, Lennoxville, England, Wales, France), sittin' at the "cool hang-out spot", actin' like fools in class (5B), New Years at K.P., the Spring Balls, orientation weekend, and of course, the big Grad. All the friends I've made will not be forgotten. I know this sounds kind of cheese-doggy, but it's the truth. To all the boys: Hikers, Gangsta's, Prep's, Gino's, Tokers, BLBC'ers, thanks for great times, and to Lisa for mokin' my last few months even better. A big thanks to Mom, Dad, Adam, Ness, Fuzzy, and Tux for always being there and helping me out. I love you all tons. It's now time to reach higher, "Beam me up Scottie." Don't worry, I'm not a Trekkie... I'm a Trickster.

We are the class of 2A
 And we had many interesting days.
 We learned ever so much in our class,
 With chess as part of our math.

In one of our tasks
 We drew beautiful masks,

And built gingerbread houses at Christmas.

At Carnival we frolicked in the snow
 And developed the healthiest glow.
 We played with our friends

Till the tunnel did we end,
 And that's how some of our year did go.

The 1996 Senior Football season was filled with high hopes and expectations. The team relied heavily on the play of experienced veterans: James Brooks, Ziad Kaedbey, Igor Lauw-Bastien, Mike Durcak, Ian Marquis, Toby No, Colin No, Kevin Boyle, and Tomek Nishijima. Unfortunately, the team was plagued with injuries and was unable to put the entire starting line-up on the field. However, many less experienced players including Sean McKinnon stepped up and filled in to the best of their abilities. The team put forth a valiant effort, ending the season with a superb game against the top team in the league. Everyone was extremely pleased with their performance. Thanks to the coaches for an enjoyable season.

The Senior Soccer team had a very successful season under the guidance of Coach Paoletti. The season was highlighted by the CAIS under-19 tournament in Hamilton. The team was lead by the excellent play of captain Roberto Bellini, Richard Martz, Camilo Durana and John Katiforis. The team, comprised of many grade 9 and 10 players, performed exceptionally well despite their youth and inexperience. Playing in an extremely competitive league, the team managed to make it as far as the quarter-finals. Next season promises to be another successful one, with many returning veterans.

This season was yet another productive one for the Gryphons Ski Team, filled with both fun and success.

It was a difficult season in terms of weather, and we seemed to ride a roller coaster throughout much of the winter, with temperatures plunging to -20 one day, then rising above freezing the next. Despite this, we were able to run all three GMAA races, held on Mt. Royal, with the winner being decided by his two best placings.

At the Bantam level, Pablo Durana completed an amazing first year of skiing by taking home the silver medal. Theo MacLauchlin captured 5th place, and Julian Simonetta took home 6th.

At Midget, Jordan Goldwarg won the individual gold medal for the third consecutive year. Michael O'Gorman won his second silver medal, Alex Davis placed 4th and David Cameron came 5th. By capturing four of the top five positions, the midget team easily won the team gold for the second year in a row.

At Senior, Chris Eich, a first-year racer, finished in 9th place over-all, despite being late for the start of two of his races.

Many thanks to Mr. Moffat, who succeeded, as always, in motivating us to perform beyond our highest expectations. Special thanks to Mr. Mike Reece, who took time out from his busy schedule to help us with training and at races. With many veterans returning, next year promises to be another great one.

The Rugby Tour

DAY 1 • Friday, March 14, 1997

Slowly, but surely, the coaches checked off the players' names at the ticket-counter in Mirabel Airport. After the final farewells and exchanges of hugs and kisses, the congregation of students and parents around the departure gate dissipated, and our tour began.

Our bags heavy with reading material, food, and music, the Selwyn House Midget and Senior Rugby teams boarded the 747 headed for London's Heathrow Airport. Some might have said that the tight seating arrangements were cause for discomfort on the seven-hour voyage, but on the more positive side, it initiated the camaraderie that would unite our teams throughout the tour.

Two meals, and two movies later, the plane touched-down on a runway bordered by fields of grass seemingly untouched by snow. The contrast between this climate and that of Canada quickly explained why rugby overseas is so popular. Inside Heathrow, we dragged our luggage along the labyrinth of hallways and finally proceeded through the ridiculously long lines at customs, all of us that is except for Roberto Bellini who made good use of his European passport. Outside the airport, a shiny red bus awaited our jet-lagged ensemble. However, despite a general lack of sleep and energy, pure enthusiasm and curiosity fueled our bodies and allowed us to stay awake for the four-hour ride to Wales.

For most of us, it was the first time we had ever seen so much greenery, not to mention sheep! Once out of London, we became convinced that the principal Welsh crop was grass. Half-way to Swansea, we stopped for lunch. This was our first experience with the European economy. In the beginning there was an overwhelming sense of relief as the prices on the menus looked familiar; then, we realized that the costs were in British pounds! Ouch.

Off again, and soon the scenery favoured an urban look. Located on a peninsula in South Wales, we arrived at our destination of Swansea. To get the jet-lag out of our systems, our team had a brief practice on one of Bishopston Comprehensive School's many rugby pitches before meeting our billets. Then, it was time to split-up and experience the Welsh culture on an individual basis.

Our billets were extremely hospitable and after a hearty dinner, decided to show us what Swansea could offer us at night. At the end of an evening that none will soon forget, we bid each other good-night, anxious to enjoy the first night's sleep of the tour.

GRADE 10 GOES TO STRATFORD

TERRY FOX RUN

The 1996 Terry Fox Run took place on a mild October morning at Murray Hill Park. Selwyn boys from the elementary and senior school participated in this annual fund-raising event. Collecting a total of $20 485,82 for the Terry Fox Cancer Foundation, Selwyn House proved a major contributor once again.

ORIENTATION WEEKEND

THE ULTIMATE RAFTING EXPERIENCE!

FOUNDER'S DAY

Founder's Day, held this year on Wednesday, November 27, kicked off with an assembly whose theme of recognizing the special accomplishments of members of the Selwyn community continued throughout the day and well into the night.

In celebration of the founding of the school and Captain Algernon Lucas, SHS and many of its faculty and staff concentrated their efforts on remembering all those who contributed to the School.

This year's Speirs Medal was awarded jointly to Dr. Victor and Mrs. Sheila Goldbloom. Dr. Goldbloom's achievements include an appointment as Quebec's Minister of the Environment, being chosen twice by the Government of Canada as a delegate to a United Nations conference, and being named an Officer of the Order of Canada.

Mrs. Goldbloom has held positions as Publications Secretary for the League of Women Voters in New York and as Director of the Young Adult Department at the Montreal YWCA, but she concentrated her efforts over the last four decades working in various positions at McGill University's School of Social Work where she rose to the rank of Associate Professor, a post she held for 28 years.

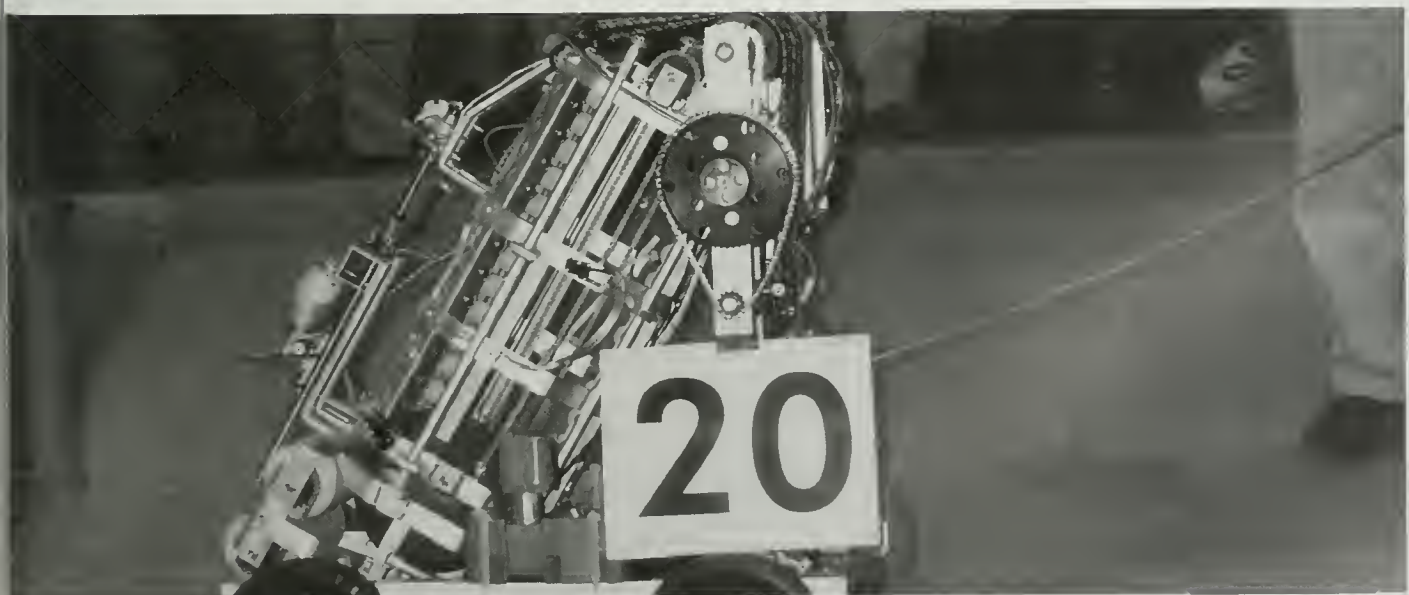

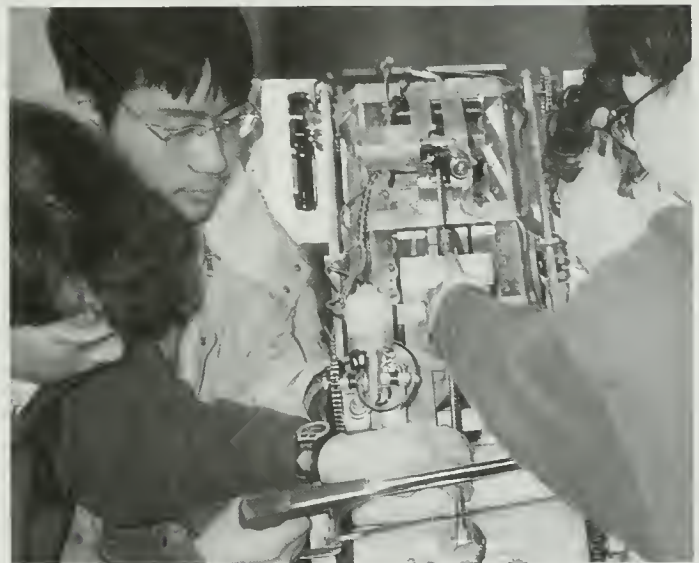

This year was the first that the Medal was awarded jointly.

GARAGE SALE

T HIS YEAR, SELWYN HOUSE'S ANNUAL GARAGE

Sale proved once again to be a very successful event. The generosity of Selwyn House parents was vital to the smooth operation of the fund raiser. Over 150 parents, staff members, and students volunteered their greatly appreciated time. Parents and students together made 310 quiches and 300 lasagnas.

This year's raffle also brought in thousands of dollars as did the newly introduced mini-silent auction. The profits from this year's sale greatly aided the cause of the Oncology Department at the Montreal Children's Hospital, which received a cheque in the amount of $4,000. Westmount Park School and St. Columba House also received $2,000 and $1,000 respectively. Part of the profits also helped fund this year's rugby trip to Europe.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PLAY

Students of the elementary school presented an entertaining version of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. A wicked queen, an enchanting Snow White, frolicking dwarfs, bungling servants, an absent-minded king, a love-struck prince, a talking mirror, and animal friends all added their own comedy to the story. A Dutch, Korean, French, Italian, Spanish and liberated Snow White made cameo appearances.

Each homeroom chose a book commemorating a special event, a project, or a theme that was explored in that class. The books were presented to the library and were gratefully received by Virginia Ferguson, Head Librarian. Each book bears a book plate noting the class which donated it and why. This will serve as an artifact, an historical record, recognizing the passage of that class.
